PALM SPRINGS AERIAL TRAMWAY

HORSE RIDING

Take in the desert’s breathtaking beauty with a picturesque horseback ride through the historic Agua Caliente Indian Canyons that offer year round streams and a beautiful palm oasis. This is one of the most beautiful spots in Western North America. Its indigenous flora and fauna and its abundant palms are breathtaking contrasts to the stark, rocky gorges and barren deserts below.

HIKING IN THE INDIAN CANYON

As the Agua Caliente Indian Canyon trails spill out to the south of Palm Springs, you'll be treated to magnificent views of the mountains and the valley, as it stretches out at your feet. The trails are also flanked by towering, shady palms and gentle streams, making it hard to remember just how near "civilization" really is. We can offer informative nature walks of one and two miles, to moderate hikes.

PALM SPRINGS AIR MUSEUM

See the actual planes that won the greatest war in history! Hear the pounding roar of the mightiest piston engines ever built! Climb up and look in the cockpits of the legendary fighters and bombers of WWII! The Palm Springs Air Museum is a non-profit educational institution whose mission is to exhibit, educate and eternalize the role of the WWII combat aircraft and the role the pilots and American citizens had in achieving this great victory.
